MANILA FORWARDER

NOTICE OF LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY
AND OPTIONAL CARGO INSURANCE ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Please read this document carefully before tendering your shipment. By signing below, the shipper acknowledges receipt of these terms and confirms that optional cargo insurance has been explained and offered.

1. Optional Cargo Insurance

Optional cargo insurance is available through a licensed third-party insurance carrier. Manila Forwarder is not an insurance company and only facilitates placement of coverage. Insurance is subject to the insurer's policy terms, exclusions, deductibles, and conditions.

2. Fragile Items

Customers are strongly encouraged to professionally crate fragile items. Manila Forwarder exercises reasonable care in handling shipments but is not responsible for damage resulting from inadequate packing or from ordinary transportation risks except as required by law or covered by purchased insurance.

3. Shipper Responsibilities

The shipper certifies that all items are properly packed and accurately declared and that prohibited or hazardous items have not been included.

4. Security Inspection

Shipments may be inspected by U.S. Customs, TSA, Philippine Bureau of Customs, or other government agencies. Locked shipments may be opened when required by law.

5. Limitation of Liability

Unless greater protection has been purchased where available, Manila Forwarder's maximum liability shall not exceed US$200 per shipment, except where prohibited by applicable law.

6. Excluded Property

Unless specifically accepted in writing and covered by insurance, Manila Forwarder assumes no liability for cash, jewelry, watches, passports, negotiable instruments, precious metals, firearms, ammunition, prescription medication, artwork, antiques, collectibles, family heirlooms, electronic data, cryptocurrency wallets, or other irreplaceable property.

7. Force Majeure

Manila Forwarder shall not be liable for delays or losses caused by weather, natural disasters, war, strikes, port congestion, customs examinations, pandemics, government action, or other events beyond its reasonable control.

8. Claims

Written notice of visible loss or damage should be submitted within thirty (30) days after delivery together with supporting documentation.
